

PEACE THOUGHTS

The promise was that when the glass was full,
it would overflow, benefiting the poor.

What happens instead is that when the glass is full,
it magically gets bigger, but nothing ever comes out for the poor....

This expresses a crude and naïve trust in the goodness
of those wielding economic power and in the sacralised workings of the prevailing economic system.'

'The world tells us to seek success, power and money,
God tells us to seek humility, service and love.....

Seeking happiness in material things is a sure way to be unhappy.'

'It is not enough to say we are Christians.

We must live the faith, not only with our words, but with our actions.'

'Have the courage to go against the tide of current values
that do not conform to the path of Jesus.'

GOSPEL THOUGHTS Matt. 20; 1-16

Mum was careful cutting the birthday cake, she knew if all the pieces were not the same size, there could be tears.
Sharing out pocket money Dad tried to be fair to his children.
Loving parents would not declare they had a favourite.

If forgiveness and reconciliation is the evidence that Jesus was calling us to employment, righteous people might think he was unfair. Sometimes when he came to town, he would move through the crowd to find the person who was out of favour with everyone else.

Jesus teaching and example reveals the nature of God. We are discovering that God's love and creativity is bigger than our sense of our mean and measured fairness. Can we be generous not only fair?
